Hackett Says They Will Have Nothing Old-Rich

Put Him in Business. Norman K. Hackett, starring in "The City" company, which pleased El Pasoans so largely last evening, found himself right at home in El Paso, for Frank Rich, manager of the theater where he played here, is an old time friend. In fact, Rich put Hackett in the business many years ago and was his manager for a long time.

his manager for a long time.
"Yes, Frank and I are old time friends," declared Hackett this morning, as he was knocking about town, looking at the skyscrapers under the personal direction of Mr. Rich. "When Frank was manager of Mme. Rhea, he gave me my first regular theatrical work and I played with her in 'Nell Gwynn' and other productions. "Later I was for 12 years with the best Shaksperean actors in the country and worked hard to perfect myself in the Shaksperean school of acting, only to find that when I had been proncunced proficient, I must embrace the new school of acting. But, my Shaksperean training was not lost, al-though I might have saved much hard work had I been able to see into the future and forecast what the public was going to want in 1910. The people do not want anything old these days. I went out last year in 'Beau Brummel,' but the people wouldn't have it, just because it was of my acting, for in new plays I am able, I congratulate myself, to draw pretty good audiences. My 'Classmates' was a success; the I tried 'Beau Brummel,' which failed, Now I have had a most successful season in 'The City.' 'Classmates' and 'The City' have both been new vehicles, while Beau Brummel' was not, although it had such a popularity a few years ago that I was tempted to try a revival. The people want something absolutely new, and actors have to give it to them."

LOCAL PHYSICIANS DECLARE DOPE FIEND IN "CITY" FINE.
Profesional praise is praise indeed.
Two El Paso physicians, Dr. H. H.
Stark and Dr. C. T. Brown, who saw the performance of "The City" Tuesday evening, say that the dope fiend's performance was perfect from a medi-cal standpoint. The actions of the man were true to life, they say, and Mar should he be seen on the streets acting Wing has appealed from a decision of as he did he would be recognized in-the United States commissioner, who stantly as a man addicted to the drug
